

July 8, 2016

Greetings,

Recently, Great Plains Energy, the parent company of Kansas City Power and Light, announced its intention to acquire Westar Energy. You may have questions about how this will affect you as a Westar retiree, particularly as it pertains to your benefits and pension.

While we're very early in the acquisition process, which will take until at least next spring, we can assure you that your pension benefits are protected by law and won't change. Retiree medical benefits won't change prior to the merger, but may be considered in the years ahead as benefits are reviewed on an annual basis. We will continue to communicate with you as information becomes available.

Here are the basic details of the acquisition announcement:

What: Great Plains Energy has announced plans to acquire Westar Energy

- Combines two largest Kansas energy companies
- Westar shareholders will receive $60.00 per share of total consideration for each share of Westar common stock, consisting of $51.00 in cash and $9.00 in Great Plains Energy common stock, subject to a 7.5 percent collar based upon the Great Plains Energy common stock price at the time of the closing of the transaction, with the exchange ratio for the stock consideration ranging between 0.2709 to 0.3148 shares of Great Plains Energy common stock for each Westar share of common stock, representing a consideration mix of 85 percent cash and 15 percent stock.

Who: Pending approvals, Westar Energy will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Great Plains Energy

- Great Plains is the parent company of KCP&L
- Great Plains has operated in Kansas longer than we have

Where: Kansas!

- Keeps downtown Topeka headquarters
- Continues community involvement and charitable giving

When: We expect to complete the transaction in late spring or early summer 2017, pending approvals

- Requires approvals from Westar and Great Plains shareholders, KCC, and others

Additional information will be shared in phases, as the details of the transaction are developed. Thank you for your patience as we work through this process. If you have any questions, please contact HR at (888) 974-0016.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Mark Ruelle".

Mark Ruelle
President/CEO, Westar Energy
